

UTSW Pediatric Residency at Children's Medical Center Salary and Benefits

Salary (2025-26 Academic Year)

- PL1 - $70,101
- PL2 - $72,672
- PL3 - $76,167

Resident Benefits

- Medical Malpractice Insurance
- Free parking at Children's Medical Center and Parkland (when on nursery or NICU)
- White coats and scrubs – 1 each per year
- Membership to American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) including access to Pediatrics Review and Education Program (PREP) Assessments
- Membership to Texas Pediatric Society (TPS)
- Access to major journals via UT Southwestern Digital Library
- Book Money: $1,000 per year for books, study materials, medical supplies, special certifications, travel for away rotations, meetings and conferences
- Relocation reimbursement of up to $1,000 (receipts required) for incoming PL-1s only
- Badge funds provided for meals based on number of night shifts per PL year
- Lunch provided at noon conferences Monday through Friday
- Two- and half--day intern retreat for PL-1s in January
- One and a half-day Residents as Leaders retreat for PL-2s in August
- Coverage for all residents to attend annual Holiday Party (December) and Graduation (June)

Children's Health Employee Benefits

- Major contributions to medical, dental, vision, and life insurance (including spouses/dependents)
- Discounts on public transportation passes (DART and TRE)
- Wellness and family support services
- Physical and mental health support
- Discount programs for health, fitness and pet insurance services
- Financial health services including employee savings plans, life insurance, short and long term disability and identity theft protection.
- View the complete Children's Health 2025 Benefits Guide by clicking here